

Terms of Service for Pi Market Mate (May 07, 2025)

Acceptance Using Pi Market Mate ("App," "we") binds you to these Terms. Refrain from use if you disagree.

Service App calculates Pi currency equivalents using CoinGecko data and intends to integrate with Pi Wallet (<https://wallet.pi>), though sending calculated amounts is currently unavailable.

User Responsibilities Use lawfully, provide accurate data, avoid disrupting app functionality.

Intellectual Property App content is ours, protected by copyright. Use is for personal, non-commercial purposes only.

Payment Pi Wallet integration is subject to Pi Network terms (<https://mine.pi>). Sending calculated amounts is not yet functional; we're not liable for transaction failures.

Disclaimers App is "as is," with no warranties. Pi price data may fluctuate and be inaccurate. Sending to Pi Wallet is not currently supported.

Liability No liability for indirect damages or calculation errors, including inability to send to Pi Wallet.

Termination We may suspend access for violations; uninstall to cease use.

Governing Law Governed by the laws of the Republic of Korea, excluding conflict principles.

Changes Revised May 07, 2025. Changes notified in-app.
